

Student Development Initiative

Onboarding Session

Company Overview

Hacktiv8 is an immersive reskilling program (bootcamp) that transforms beginners into job-ready digital talents.

Since 2016, we've been dedicated to resolving the tech skills gap by providing a comprehensive and practical curriculum that prepares students for successful careers and contributes to Indonesia's economic growth.

With over 7,200 students trained, we're driving digital transformation and empowering individuals to thrive in the evolving tech industry.

About Student Developer Initiative

Student Developer Initiative is a collaborative program between IBM and Hacktiv8 aimed at equipping students and young talents with practical skills in data, programming, and AI.

The main goal of this program is to help participants leverage artificial intelligence (AI), particularly IBM Granite, to enhance their productivity and support their activities—whether in software development or data analysis.
